

8th European Alcohol
Policy Conference (8EAPC)
ENLIGHTENED ALCOHOL POLICY FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

It's when we start working together that the real healing takes place.

David Hume (1711–1776), Scottish philosopher

20–21 November 2018
The Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, Scotland

www.8EAPC.eu | 8eapc@rcpe.ac.uk

SHAAP

SCOTTISH HEALTH ACTION ON ALCOHOL PROBLEMS
www.shaap.org.uk

eurocare

European Alcohol Policy Alliance

8th European Alcohol Policy Conference – 8EAPC Draft Programme

Day One: Tuesday 20 November 2018

Session	Details	Questions to be addressed
Opening 9:30-10:30	Scottish Government representatives (TBC) Vytenis Andriukaitis, European Commissioner for Food and Health Safety Jevgeni Ossinovski, Estonia Minister of Health and Labour (TBC) Jürgen Rehm, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health Eric Carlin, Scottish Health Action on Alcohol Problems Tiziana Codenotti, Eurocare
Theme One – Justice 11:00-12:30	Arianna Andreangeli (Chair), University of Edinburgh Christine Goodall, Medics Against Violence Johanna Gripenberg, Stockholm Centre for Psychiatric Research Mariann Skar, Eurocare Wim van Dalen, Dutch Institute for Alcohol Policy	What makes socially just alcohol policy? What are our achievements on this? What needs to happen in the future? How can we collaborate to achieve this?
Lunch 12:30-13:30	Music and lunch in the Great Hall, and exhibition in the New Library
Theme Two – Health 13:30 – 15:00	Katherine Brown, Institute of Alcohol Studies Lauri Beekmann, Nordic Alcohol and Drug Policy Network Andrew Fraser, NHS Health Scotland MORE SPEAKERS BEING CONFIRMED	What is a healthy relationship with alcohol? Which interventions can reduce alcohol-related health harms? How can we collaborate to achieve these? What needs to happen in the future?
Coffee break 15:00-15:30	Music and posters
Theme Three – Gender 15:30-17:00	Katherine Brown (Chair), Institute of Alcohol Studies Carol Emslie, Glasgow Caledonian University Carina Ferreira-Borges, World Health Organization MORE SPEAKERS BEING CONFIRMED	How do different genders differ in their relationships with alcohol? How does the industry target different genders? Which policy interventions are likely to reduce harm? How can we collaborate to achieve these? What needs to happen in the future?
Enlightenment Salon 17:15-18:15	Music from the Scottish Enlightenment, and announcement of the winner of European Award for Reducing Alcohol Harm (EARAH) 2018
Gala Dinner 19:30-22:00	Dinner and entertainment - paid ticket required

8th European Alcohol Policy Conference – 8EAPC Draft Programme

Day Two: Wednesday 21 November 2018

Session	Speaker	Questions to be addressed
Sponsored Breakfast 8:00-9:15	By invitation only
Opening and Update 9:30-9:45	Eric Carlin, Scottish Health Action on Alcohol Problems Mariann Skar, Eurocare
Theme Four – Economics 9:45-11:15	Emanuele Scafato, WHO Collaborating Centre Research and Health Promotion on Alcohol Michele Cecchini, Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development Jérôme Salomon, French Ministry of Social Affairs and Health	How can policy balance economic benefits and health and social harm? Which state interventions can reduce harm? How can we collaborate to achieve this? What needs to happen in the future?
Coffee break 11:15-11:45	Music posters
Theme Five – Youth 11:45-13:15	Eric Carlin(Chair), Scottish Health Action on Alcohol Problems Marijs Geirnaert, Association for Alcohol and Other Drug Problems Lukas Galkus, Alcohol Policy Youth Network Tracy Shildrick, Newcastle University Victoria Troy, Scottish Health Action on Alcohol Problems	What do we know about young people and alcohol? How can we learn from young people’s experiences? What can governments do to protect young people from alcohol-related harms?
Lunch 13:15-14:15
Theme Six – Recovery 14:15-15:45	Manuel Cardoso (Chair), Intervention on Addictive Behaviours and Dependencies General Directorate Maria Luisa Marín Puig, Associació Rauxa Georg Schomerus, Greifswald University Lesley Graham, National Services Scotland David McCartney, LEAP programme	What does recovery mean? Who is responsible for recovery? How can we collaborate to support recovery? What needs to happen in the future?
Coffee break 15:45-16:15	Music and film
Conclusions and call for meaningful international collaborative action 16:15-17:00	Peter Rice, Scottish Action on Alcohol Problems (SHAAP) Suzanne Costello, Alcohol Action Ireland MORE SPEAKERS BEING CONFIRMED
Conference Closes at 17:00

The 8th European Alcohol Policy Conference (8EAPC) is being organised by SHAAP and Eurocare with the support of the Scottish Government and the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

We would like to thank the following sponsors for their support

